

Guam, US Military Bases and Australia

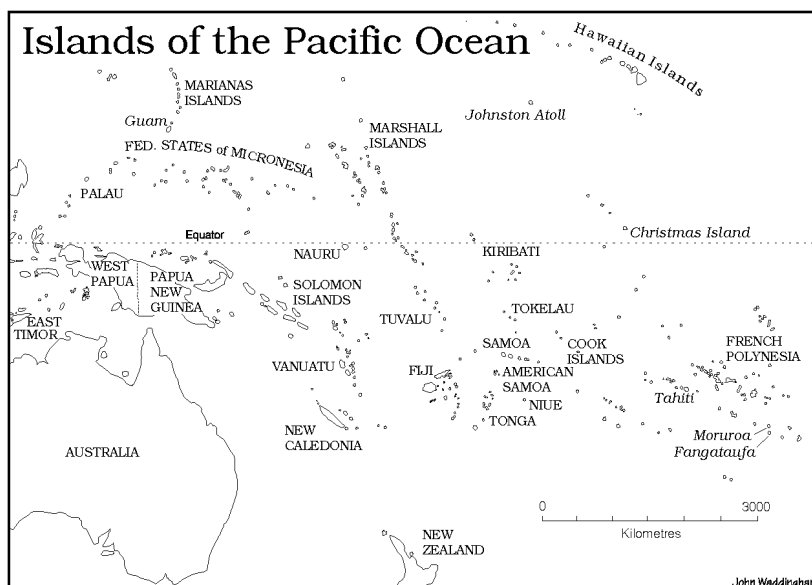

As the US prepares to move thousands of Marines from Okinawa to Guam, find out about the struggle for Indigenous self-determination in the Pacific and Australia's links to regional militarisation.

SPEAKERS:

Lisa Natividad and Julian Aguon

Chamoru activists from Guahan (Guam) who are campaigning against US military bases

Activists from the 2007 Peace Convergence

Where: Old Stables of Earthly Pleasures Café, Belgrave
(enter via back carpark)

When: Friday 13th June, 6:30pm

For more info: Kristy 0421 323 839