

ICAN fundraiser: Sunday 25 October

Join the ICAN/MAPW group booking to see The Trial of Adolf Eichmann, meet the author, Neil Cole, and support a nuclear free world.

$30.00 per ticket: book now online, or email your booking request to mapw@mapw.org.au and pay on the day.

2pm at Northcote Town Hall. Book www.mapw.org.au

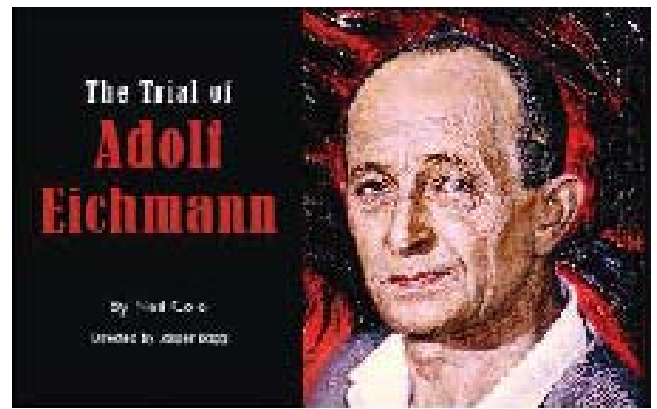

ICAN fundraiser: Sunday 25 October

Join the ICAN/MAPW group booking to see The Trial of Adolf Eichmann, meet the author, Neil Cole, and support a nuclear free world.

$30.00 per ticket: book now online, or email your booking request to mapw@mapw.org.au and pay on the day.

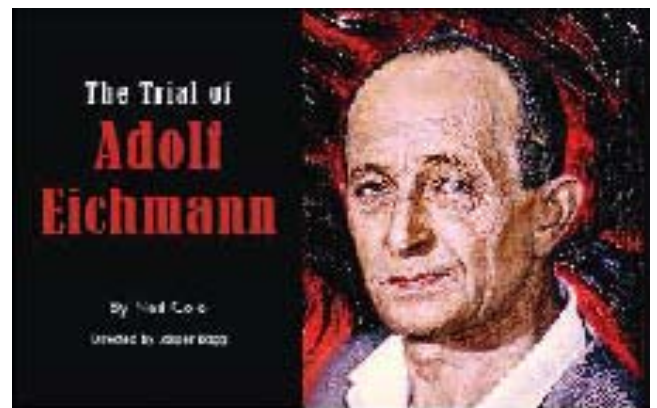

2pm at Northcote Town Hall. Book www.mapw.org.au

THE TRIAL OF ADOLF EICHMANN

1961: the 'Chief Executioner' Adolf Aichman is captured and extradited to Israel. He pleads not guilty to being responsible for the "Final Solution to the Jewish Problem".

Woven through the trial of this man who administered what is arguably the one of the worst crimes in history, comes the inspiring story of two Auschwitz survivors - Kitia Altman and Arnold Erlanger - who now live in Melbourne. Theirs is a story of hope.

THE TRIAL OF ADOLF EICHMANN

1961: the 'Chief Executioner' Adolf Aichman is captured and extradited to Israel. He pleads not guilty to being responsible for the "Final Solution to the Jewish Problem".

Woven through the trial of this man who administered what is arguably the one of the worst crimes in history, comes the inspiring story of two Auschwitz survivors - Kitia Altman and Arnold Erlanger - who now live in Melbourne. Theirs is a story of hope.